

Fort Ross Conservancy is a nonprofit cooperating association, working with and abiding by all the rules and regulations set forth by our partner, California State Parks. Consequently, we ask that ALL groups coming to camp at Fort Ross, Reef Campground or any of the Salt Point State Parks campgrounds, abide by the same rules, respecting the relationship and understanding between our organizations.

California State Park Camping Rules & Regulations -

NATURAL SCENERY, PLANTS AND ANIMAL LIFE are the principal attractions of most state parks. They are integral parts of the ecosystem and natural community. Disturbance or destruction of these resources is unlawful.

DEAD AND DOWN WOOD is part of the natural environment. Decayed vegetation forms humus and assists the growth of trees and other plants. For this reason the gathering of down wood is prohibited. Fuel may be sold in the parks for your convenience.

FIRES are permitted only in designated fire pits provided for this purpose. Portable stoves may be used in designated areas. All fireworks are prohibited.

ANIMALS must be under immediate physical control. Dogs must be on a tended leash no more than 6 feet or confined in an enclosed vehicle, tent or pen. Dogs, other than service animals, are prohibited on trails, beaches, and wherever posted.

NOISE - Generators may be operated only between the hours 10:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. Loud disturbing noise is prohibited at all times. Quiet hours are between 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m.

ALL VEHICLE TRAVEL must be confined to designated roads or areas. The speed for all vehicles is 15 miles per hour in camp, picnic, utility or headquarters areas and areas of general assemblage. Parking is permitted only in designated areas. Off road parking and blocking parking spaces is prohibited.

REFUSE, including garbage, cigarettes, paper boxes, bottles, ashes and other rubbish, shall be placed only in designated receptacles. Your pleasure and pride in your parks will be enhanced when they are kept clean.

PLEASE clean up after yourself so that others may enjoy the beauty of these parks .
