School Groups

The FRC ELP Manager guides the teacher through the entire ELP process, from registration to completion and everything in between. An ELP Instructor works with every group while onsite at Fort Ross, offering instruction and support. The curriculum is aligned with 3rd through 5th grade California state standards.

Homeschool/Other Groups

Who wouldn’t want to sleep in an eight-sided blockhouse and make borscht in a thirty pound cast iron pot on an open fire? Our ELP program is available year-round, and is great fun for homeschooling families, older students, and even adults! Call or email us to discuss.

ELP (Overnight) or ELDP (Day-Only)

We offer an ELP overnight program on Monday-Tuesday or Thursday-Friday, and a single day ELDP program on Wednesdays. Contact us if you’re interested in weekends.

Teacher Training

Teacher Training is critical to a successful program. Every teacher must attend the ELP training every 3 years. The trainings happen 3 times a year during the ELP season. Contact us for the schedule.

How to Register

Open Enrollment for the Fort Ross Environmental Living Program (ELP) starts April 1st. Each teacher should call or e-mail before that date to make sure they are in our database and will receive our online reservation form.

All applications are accepted on a first come first serve basis according to space availability.

Cost

ELP: $40 per person for each participant (including chaperones); there is no charge for the teacher
ELDP: $20 per person for each participant (including chaperones); there is no charge for the teacher
Teacher Training: $30 without food, $45 with food

Fort Ross Conservancy believes all students should have access to quality outdoor education. If your school qualifies for fee waivers, please apply for an FRC Scholarship at http://www.fortross.org/youth-scholarships.htm.
